

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL (IG) COMPLAINT PROGRAM

1. The Air Force has a well-established complaint program. You can get help quickly and fairly when you need someone to answer a question. You can make your complaint at any level in the IG system. No one may act against you just because you complained. If you think someone has acted against you just because you complained, tell an inspector or an IG.
2. The IG Complaints Program is described in AFI 90-301. This instruction tells you how to make a complaint and to whom you should talk. You may go to an inspector or IG at any level, but experience has shown commanders and supervisors are the people best equipped to resolve your complaints. Therefore, you are encouraged to discuss your problem with your supervisor or commander before coming to the IG.
3. The IG Complaints Program does not generally handle matters that are covered under the other Air Force Instructions (AFIs) or directives. The following list provides for appropriate referral to agencies with programs for the redress of these complaints. This list is not all inclusive of every type of complaint that can be handled by other appeal channels.

Type of Complaint

Military Equal Opportunity (EOT) Issues: race, color, Sex, religion, or national origin
(Civilians) Complaint of conditions of employment and Equal Employment Opportunity
(Civilians) Nonappropriated Fund employee reprisal

4. If a policy directive or instruction provides a specific means of appeal, you must exhaust those appeal procedures. You must be able to allege that the process was mishandled or handled prejudicially before IG channels will process a complaint of mishandling. Mere dissatisfaction with the outcome of an appeal is not sufficient basis for an IG review, inquiry, or investigation.
